

Good Morning!

Welcome to Overflow

Combined groups today:
Kelly & Mary Helen—C310
Mary Evelyn & Bowie—C106

Hymn #399, Turn Your Eyes
October 25, 2022

Announcements

Oct. 25, 2022

*Oct. 28 Children's Ministry Movie Night (costumes encouraged!)

*Nov. 18-20 Sr. High Retreat

*Don't forget Tuesday Morning Prayer, grades 6-12!

*Follow for all the fun and info:

@2pckids

@2pcthreedeegrees

@2pctrueenorth

*Please remember to let your leader know if/when you do not need the nursery on Tuesday morning. This helps us in our planning. Thank you!

The Lord Will Provide for Himself a King

I Samuel 16-18

- I. The Lord Will Provide for Himself a King for His People, ch. 16
- II. A Champion Who Will Fight and Win on Their Behalf, ch. 17-18

Main Theme: The Lord will provide for Himself a king for His people—namely, a champion who will fight and win on their behalf.

Author's Aim: to “exalt the horn of His anointed”, I Sam. 2:10

David's God:

YHWH: LORD; covenant-making/keeping God

Present with His people

Sovereign: Supreme and independent power and authority. He directs all things in order to carry out his purposes (Rom. 8:28–29).

Providence: Divine providence is the governance of God by which He, with wisdom and love, cares for and directs all things in the universe—God is in complete control of all things. To ensure that His purposes are fulfilled, God governs the affairs of men and works through the natural order of things.

(Knowing the Bible study)

Living

Truth: Having a God like this gives a new way of seeing life.