
AMEN Bible Study 2022
Men After God's Own Heart: Accountability
Matthew 18:15-20
March 31, 2022

*"To be accountable to someone is to have the responsibility of offering an account of your life to that person." –
Cherith Peters*

"We are only as accountable as we want to be." – Rev. Andy Lewis

Scriptural Introduction

1. Do You Have a Brother Who Will Come After You? (v.15)

2. Are You Seeking to Live Transparently? (v.16)

3. Do You Value the Safeguard of Church Discipline? (v.17)

4. Do You See the Blessing of God in All This? (v.18-20)

Discussion Questions

Knowing

1. How does the surrounding context of the passage point to God's discipline being restorative?
2. To what type of situations is verse 9 referring?

Being

1. What are some of the reasons it is so important for us to make ourselves accountable to other brothers in Christ?
2. Why has the Church been given this kind of authority in a believer's life?

Doing

1. Who are the 2 or 3 men to whom you make yourself accountable?
2. What do they need to know about you that you haven't told them yet?