Theme

Deuteronomy is the book in which God, through Moses, calls the covenant family to respond to the LORD's redemptive grace by faithfully listening to His instructions and choosing life, that they may enjoy (and not forfeit!) His covenant blessing in the promised land He is giving them.

Purpose

Moses' main purpose in Deuteronomy is to explain and apply Yhwh's instructions to a new generation on the plains of Moab so that they might choose to take possession of Canaan and live in His blessing there.

Prologue

Deuteronomy 1:1-5

These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea.

In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month,

Moses spoke to the people of Israel according to all that the Lord had given him in commandment to them, after he had defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and in Edrei.

Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to explain this law, saying...

The prologue makes us ask:

How will we respond to God's revealed Word?

How do we, a hard hearted people, respond to God? How can we wholeheartedly keep His commands?

The prologue signals the answer:

We submit our hard hearts to YHWH, trusting in His covenant love for us and thereby keeping His word.
