PREPARATION FOR MORNING WORSHIP

Welcome back, Second family! On Father's Day, we delight to celebrate our earthly fathers. Yet, we acknowledge that every earthly father has feet of clay. There is only one perfect Father. Our creed calls Him the Father Almighty.

Our Savior addresses this Almighty Father in an unprecedented way. He calls God Abba, which means "daddy" in Aramaic. Why does Jesus do this? He wants us to experience the same type of close and intimate relationship with God that He enjoys. He bids us to pray to the Father boldly and confidently, like a little child comes to a loving, approachable dad.

In his classic book Knowing God, J.I. Packer asks this question: Who is a Christian? "This question can be answered in many ways, but the richest answer I know is that a Christian is one who has God for his Father."

When you personally come to know this Father, you seek what He seeks. You desire what He desires. What is His supreme desire? The glory of His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ (John 8:54). Let us prepare to worship our Father by glorifying His Son.

Please take this order of worship with you as you exit.

In the eyes of God some sins in themselves are more evil than others, and some are more evil because of the harm that results from them.

RECEIVE THE GRACE OF JESUS

CORPORATE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious Heavenly Father, we are sinners in Your sight; yet, in Christ, You are reconciled to Your rebellious children. Shamefully, we have experienced Your amazing grace toward us, but we have not loved You with our whole hearts nor our neighbors as ourselves. Forgive us for tolerating sin in the knowledge that grace abounds. Forgive our neglect of Your Word, Your direction, and Your priorities. The worship that You do not despise comes from a broken spirit and contrite heart before You. Therefore, according to Your steadfast love, wash us, cleanse us, and put new and right spirits within us, that we may bring glory to Your name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the third new moon after the people of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that day they came into the wilderness of Sinai. They set out from Rephidim and came into the wilderness of Sinai, and they encamped in the wilderness. There Israel encamped before the mountain, while Moses went up to God. The LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the people of Israel: 'You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession among all peoples, for all the earth is mine; and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the people of Israel."

So Moses came and called the elders of the people and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. All the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do." And Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD. And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I am coming to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you forever."

When Moses told the words of the people to the LORD, the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments and be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people. And you shall set limits for the people all around, saying, 'Take care not to go up into the mountain or touch the edge of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall be put to death. No hand shall touch him, but he shall be stoned or shot; whether beast or man, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain." So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people; and they washed their garments. And he said to the people, "Be ready for the third day; do not go near a woman."
