Weekly Prayer Focus

World Missions–Nicole: Nicole has just begun her second term assignment as a church planter in a Muslim country in Southeast Asia. She rejoices that while on home ministry assignment she reconnected with college roommates, celebrated her sister's master's degree in Opera Performance, and most significantly, became engaged to Feo, now officially an appointee with the organization. She feels very refreshed after her time in the States. Pray for Nicole and Feo as they plan their wedding this fall in Southeast Asia. Pray for continued health, growing friendships with students in her English class, and for fruitful ministry in the field with Nicole's particular outreach to children.

Domestic Missions–French Camp Academy: French Camp Academy (FCA) is an interdenominational Christian boarding school that provides a quality, Christ-centered education and atmosphere to their students. FCA praises the Lord for a successful 2021-22 school year. They're especially encouraged to hear of former students who, years after graduating, continue to serve the Lord. Please pray that the Lord would replenish faculty and staff this summer, equipping them with all they need to return with fresh vision and energy in the Fall. Pray for God to send to FCA the specific students that He wants to be there.

2PC Ministry–Domestic Missions: Led by Brian Lewis, Randi Meyer, and Lisa Grace, the Domestic Missions department partners with local ministries serving in neighborhoods throughout Memphis. From community development corporations to youth outreach programs, to churches and schools, to refugee and immigrant ministries, to organizations serving those recovering from addiction, facing unplanned pregnancies, fleeing sex trafficking, or experiencing homelessness, Second links arms with Christians across Memphis who are committed to seeking our city's flourishing. Pray that we as a congregation would build relationships with our neighbors, demonstrate Christ's love with good deeds, and share the gospel broadly and boldly. Pray for God's Spirit to move us to regularly intercede in prayer on behalf of our neighbors, imploring God to bring restoration to our city.

Everyone Within My Reach:

From Strangers to Neighbors to Family

SUNDAYS IN JULY

On Sundays in July at 9:45 a.m., all are invited to the Fellowship Hall for a special Sunday School series titled “Everyone Within My Reach: From Strangers to Neighbors to Friends.” This series aims to equip us to live as Christ’s body in our city.

On July 10, Barton Kimbro encouraged us to know our neighbors, and we heard from Julia and Seth Harkins about how they have followed Christ by seeking to know their neighbors. Last Sunday, Barton encouraged us to build relationships with our neighbors, and we heard from Rong and Sheng Zou about how they have followed Christ by seeking to walk with their neighbors. Join us for the remaining sessions:

July 24: Hearing My Neighbor

Todd Erickson will teach on building gospel-centered community in the midst of various cultural, socioeconomic, and religious differences we encounter. Kathe Russell and Gaye Carter will share with us about how they have followed Christ by seeking to hear their neighbor.

July 31: Time for My Neighbor

Todd Erickson will teach on prioritizing time to live missionally in our neighborhoods. Lizy Wegener and Susan and Mike Warner will share with us about how they have followed Christ by seeking to make time for their neighbor.

Welcoming Our Youngest Worshippers

Encouragement from Pastor George Robertson

Often I say during a child's baptism that we are pledging ourselves to rear children who will be dangerous to the devil's kingdom. A critical part of this discipleship occurs as our children worship with us in the Sanctuary.

The Bible says our covenant children assist us in our mission to advance the Kingdom of God against the kingdom of darkness. Jesus dignified the praises of the children in the temple by leveraging the power of their worship to advance His kingdom.

When praise to God comes from the lips of children and causes the devil's forces to scatter and hearts to change, God is shown to be infinitely powerful. When we bring them close to Christ, they become weapons in His hand.

May we be a church who imitates Jesus, taking seriously the praises of our children and gladly welcoming them into worship as we disciple them to be followers of Christ!
