Discussion Questions

Knowing

- Why does Paul say he doesn't need to write to them about the "times and seasons?"
- How are the illustrations of a "thief in the night" and "labor pains" helpful in our understanding of the return of Christ?

Being

- Why does Paul focus on our identity when discussing the return of Christ?
- In what ways does the "armor" of verse eight connect our identity to our actions and attitudes as believers?

Doing

- How do you feel about Christ's return? What hopes and expectations do you have?
- What are some practical ways you can encourage each other in light of the imminent return of Christ?
